

2020 Holiday Peak Season Service Impact

As the holiday season approaches and regulations evolve around the pandemic, Canpar Express continues to pick-up and deliver your shipments as an essential service while taking the necessary steps to protect our customers and employees. We will continue to do everything possible to maintain service and ensure the safe delivery of shipments with limited disruption. We encourage all customers to ship as early as possible to ensure timely delivery of your shipments for the holidays.

Canpar Express service guarantees are suspended until further notice.

Please visit canpar.com to track your shipments online, discover delivery options available to you, and sign up for "Notify Me" to receive email notifications right to your inbox or cell phone for the most up-to-date status of your delivery.

Thank you in advance for your patience and have a safe and happy holiday season.